

Application Package — Speech-Language & Audiology Canada Awards Program 2018

Award: Mentorship Award

Deadline: October 31, 2017

Objective: To recognize an SAC member or associate who has significantly influenced or contributed to the clinical training and/or professional development of a student(s) or colleague(s) in speech-language pathology or audiology, either as a clinical supervisor, a mentor or academic faculty. Nominees demonstrate unique and outstanding individual achievements in the area of mentorship, have contributed to the development of others and have served as a role model for students and colleagues within the profession.

Nomination Tips:

1. Plan Ahead

Start preparing your nomination well before the deadline – the more time you leave yourself, the better! Review this package carefully before beginning so you know what you need. Take care in preparing your nomination and be sure to follow all instructions.

2. Work With Your Nominee

Ask for information that you can include in your nomination package. This can include newspaper articles, published works, research, projects or photographs. Also ask your nominee for his/her résumé or CV for additional information that could be used in the nomination. If you're worried about gathering all the information on your own, make it a team effort! Get help from colleagues, clients, parents, supervisors or others.

3. Be Detailed

Judges can only score your nomination based on the information you provide in the package; so, you must assume they know nothing about the nominee. Avoid general, unsupported statements – provide specific, concrete examples to support your points. Scores are based on the criteria in the "Support for Nomination" section; so, use them as a guide in preparing your answers. Be sure to answer all questions completely and accurately and check your application for grammatical, spelling and typographical errors.

4. Submit on Time

You can send in your nomination package by email, regular mail or fax by October 31, 2017. Before submitting your nomination, make sure that all important information (including your supporting documentation) is included within your submission.

5. Persevere

If your nomination is not successful this year, apply again! You can ask the Awards and Recognition Committee for comments and feedback from your evaluation so you know what to improve on before you re-submit. You can also request that your nomination package be returned if you need the information to re-apply.

Support for Nomination

Please write a letter of support of 2,000 words or fewer to explain why this nominee is deserving of this award. Be sure to answer each of the following questions in your letter (nominations will be evaluated on each of these questions):

- How has the nominee demonstrated unique and outstanding achievements in the area of mentorship? (5 points)
- How has the nominee significantly influenced or contributed to the clinical training and/or professional development of student(s) or colleague(s) in the field of speech-language pathology or audiology? (5 points)
- How does the nominee act as a role model and demonstrate a commitment to helping others succeed? (5 points)
- Is there any additional information you feel may be relevant to your nomination?

Please provide a word count with your letter of support.

Please ensure you have carefully reviewed the awards brochure and are aware of all requirements, conditions and limitations for application. Please take time and care in preparing your nomination. Candidates are comparatively judged based on the strength, quality and comprehensiveness of your submission. A good candidate with a sub-par nomination package may go unrecognized. Current SAC staff and current members of the Board of Directors are not eligible for awards.
